Socialization – Theorist Sketchpad

1. In the space provided below draw and label a sketch that represents the ideas of Charles Horton Cooley’s theory of “Looking Glass-Self.” Be sure to include Cooley’s 3 stages.

________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________(title)

2. In the space provided below draw and label a sketch that represents the ideas of George Herbert Mead’s theory of “Role-Taking Through Play.” Be sure to include Mead’s 3 stages.

________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________(title)
3. In the space provided below draw and label a sketch that represents the ideas of Alfred Adler’s “Birth Order Theory.” Be sure to include Adler’s ideas on the only child, first child, middle child, and youngest child.

______________________________________________ (title)

4. In the space provided below draw and label a sketch that represents the ideas of Erving Goffman’s theory of “Dramaturgy.”

______________________________________________ (title)